TITLE: Senior Programs for the Rockland County Office for the Aging

RFP NUMBER:
RFP-RC-2022-008

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIVES

The Rockland County Office for the Aging requires a program to provide eligible Rockland County Older Adults, 60 years and older a provision of a Senior program that provides recreational and educational activities.

Current programs provide meals and transportation; however, this is not required with this program moving forward. The Rockland County Office for the Aging requires activities organized and scheduled which are designed to foster the health and social well-being of older persons through social interaction and satisfying use of free time. This service may include educational activities as well as sports, performing arts, games, and crafts.

The program shall serve any older adults and ensure equal access for participation, services, activities, and informational sessions without regard to Age, Race, Color, Creed, National Origin, Sex, Disability, Sexual Orientation, Marital Status, Familial Status, Military Status, Arrest or Conviction Record, Predisposing Genetic Characteristics or Victims of Domestic Violence.

The program will ensure that persons with limited English proficiency are informed at service locations of the availability of language assistance, and at a minimum, have a telephonic interpretation service contract or similar community arrangement with a language interpretation services provider of their choice.

The programs currently provide services in the Monsey/Spring Valley area. The program is culturally responsive to the individual's community, cultural background, and beliefs in the area of service.

The provider must have the following available to all eligible older adults:

- Activities organized and scheduled which are designed to foster the health, social well-being of older persons through social interaction and satisfying use of free time.
- Programs may include educational activities as well as sports, performing arts, games and crafts.
- Recreation/education programs geared to improving the health, social welfare, and safety of older adults aged 60 and older;
- Bi-lingual staff, if needed, for participants who share similar background, language, and traditions who might not otherwise participate in such programs due to barriers.
- Outreach services and support services which provide essential information on pertinent senior issues, and referrals to other agencies including Rockland County Office for the Aging.
- Intellectual and social stimulation provided by culturally sensitive professionals with geriatric experience.

PROGRAM GOALS & SERVICES

- Propriety of Services: With regard to any activities/services the provider supports, sponsors or provides under these services, the Provider shall:
 - Refrain from using funds to advance any sectarian effort and ensure that any services to be provided shall be secular in nature and scope and in no event shall there be any sectarian, partisan, or religious services, counseling, proselytizing, instruction or other sectarian, partisan, or religious influence undertaken in connection with the provision of such services

- Provide equal participation, services, activities and informational sessions without regard to partisan affiliation
- Grant equal access to candidates regardless of policy views or party affiliation, consistent with 02-PI-19 [9/24/02]
- Refrain and prevent the use by others under its control of official authority, influence or coercion to interfere with or affect elections or nominations for political office
- Refrain from and prohibit any others receiving funds for services or activities for older adults from attempting to coerce or advise other persons to contribute anything of value to a party, committee, organization, agency or person for political purposes, nor engage in any other partisan activities under its auspices
- Recipients of services shall be afforded the opportunity to make a voluntary contribution to the program. This information shall be confidential and in no way affect the future delivery of services for recipients of the program. The amount of the contributions, however, will be submitted to the Rockland County Office for the Aging (RCOFA) monthly and used to expand program services.
- All programs require the collection of salient information in keeping with the requirements of the National Aging Program Information System (NAPIS) for the designated service delivery.
- The number of units of service (number of program attendees, and outreach efforts) shall be provided to the RCOFA at the end of each month and the names of the recipients shall be submitted to RCOFA as unduplicated count monthly.

The following service shall be provided under this contract:

1. Operation of a Senior Program in areas designated by the RCOFA as areas of greatest need.
 - a. The program will be operational a minimum of one day a week and/ or a maximum of 3 days per week. A schedule defining meeting location, dates and times is required at least one month in advance. The RCOFA will be notified if the program needs to be closed for reasons of weather or other emergencies.
